St. Joseph's Warrnambool

Church Centenary

September, 1989

Father,
for a hundred years this Church of St. Joseph's has been a place of your presence and love, not only for your people, but for the whole City of Warrnambool.

It has been a part of the day-to-day cycle of our lives, a place we have come to nurture our faith in you, and our care for one another.

We have gathered here to celebrate times of birth, marriage and death, and to seek your love.

We thank you for your presence with us, Father, and ask you to stay with us on your journey. Continue to draw us, and all those who will come after us, closer to you.

We offer this prayer to you, as we have always done, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
